

Stittsville Shooting Ranges Code of Conduct

Welcome to Stittsville Shooting Ranges, a family run business for over 45 years. As we welcome in more members and daily shooting enthusiasts we are committed to creating a safe and fun environment for everyone. It is required that all members and visitors keep in mind the following code of conduct at the Stittsville Shooting Ranges.

Range rules have been posted on all ranges, these rules are to be known and followed at all times while on the range property. Anyone blatantly breaking range rules may be asked to leave the range property. Individuals on the range are expected to respect the range staff, range property, range officers and fellows shooters at all times; rude or obnoxious behaviour will not be tolerated. The intentional damage of any range property could lead to ejection.

There is an absolute zero tolerance for the consumption of alcohol or drugs at the range. If you are suspected of being under the influence you will be reported to the proper authority and escorted off the range property immediately.

The use of cameras is allowed on the range, we ask that you please be aware when posting pictures and videos on social media. Photos and videos should only be taken from safe angles and only with the consent of the shooter.

If you see something that needs to be reported please see management in the shop, they are there to help and will deal with the situation as required. In addition you can contact management at 613-836-3871 during business hours.

Thank you for choosing Stittsville Shooting Ranges, we look forward to seeing you again.
